>Authors note: This is a Zelda poem about when link was a kid, walking across Hyrule field.

>As I walk across the field

>That's a hundred miles longI use my imagination

>to see Zelda in a thong.

>It becomes nightand the stallkids come out >but they run away quicklyat the sound of my shout.

>It was not a shout of bravery,

>but this is what I say,"Holy crap, watch out,

>THEY'RE COMING THIS WAY!!!!!"
